Retracing the Steps of Freedom

A Doctoral Immersion Experience of the Civil Rights Movement in Birmingham, Montgomery and Selma, Alabama

August 2-7, 2015

Come join us on this immersion experience as we visit and study at some of the most significant venues of the Civil Rights movement. Sites to be visited in Birmingham, Alabama include the Sixteenth Street Baptist Church, Kelly Ingram Park, and the Birmingham Civil Rights Institute. In Montgomery, we will visit Dexter Avenue Baptist Church, the Southern Poverty Law Center, and the Rosa Parks Museum. And in Selma we will cross the historic Edmund Pettus Bridge and visit the National Voting Rights Museum.

Rev. Dr. C. Anthony Hunt, Instructor/Guide, is a Martin Luther King, Jr. and Civil Rights scholar, and is the author of Blessed are the Peacemakers: A Theological Analysis of the Thought of Howard Thurman and Martin Luther King, Jr. He earned his Doctor of Philosophy in Philosophical Theology and Christian Social Ethics.

Three academic credits will be awarded for the Immersion, with an additional opportunity for a three credit Independent Study course in "The Life and Writings of Martin Luther King, Jr."
