Dr. Elaine A. Heath, Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University

July 3–7, 2017: Globalizing Christianity: Voices from the Global Church

Dr. Dion Forster, Stellenbosch University, South Africa

Wesley Theological Seminary developed this track for active clergy from across the globe who are seeking to enhance their leadership skills and practices. Each cohort will be international in character with colleagues and dialogue reflecting the global nature of today's church. The instructors teaching these courses are from the best scholar-teachers available in the global church. Additionally, this track is unique because of its location at Wesley House, the historic Methodist study center in the heart of Cambridge University. Completion requires an additional elective course and project thesis.

Enrollment is limited to 20 students. Admission requires a Master of Divinity or equivalent from an A.T.S.-accredited seminary (3.0 GPA) and three years of post-M.Div. ministry experience.
