

Second Mondays

2015 - 16

A theological exploration of faith, citizenship and the public square

Understand more. See the world differently.

Engage with experts. Be challenged.

Join us for the Second Mondays lecture series and explore new ideas that will build your faith and understanding of the world around you.

Jeremiah 29:7

But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the Lord on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare.

This passage from the prophet Jeremiah invites us to explore the role of citizenship in the overall well-being of communities. Join us for lectures delving into this Bible verse the second Monday of the month, September through April. Subject-matter experts will discuss timely topics stretching your understanding of faith, citizenship and the public square. And then you have the chance to ask questions and engage in ways you can only do at Second Mondays lectures.

7:30 a.m. at 4500 Massachusetts Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20016

Complimentary breakfast provided.
