Main Wesley Campus

Helpful tip #1: Wesley's emergency notification system, Wesley Alerts, directly sends registered users text messages and phone calls. We strongly encourage you to register for Wesley Alerts. Examples of campus emergencies include closures for inclement weather or other unplanned reasons, and safety or security situations.

Campus Map: Wesley Downtown Campus

Helpful tip #2:
There is a lost
and found located in the library.

There are many ways to get from Main Campus to Wesley Downtown. This will help you choose whether to drive, metro, or bus during rush hour.

Driving/biking: Turn right on Massachusetts Ave toward Ward Circle. You will follow Massachusetts Ave through four traffic circles before reaching the Wesley Downtown Campus.

Metro: Take the Red line from Tenleytown station to the Gallery Place-Chinatown station. Exit using the Galleries (9th & G) exit and walk .5 miles south on 9th St. to MVS. Alternatively, transfer to the Green or Yellow line. If you transfer at Gallery Place-Chinatown, take the Green line toward Greenbelt or the Yellow Line toward Fort Totten. You can then walk roughly .3 miles to Wesley Downtown.

Bus: Take the N4 bus toward Farragut Square from in front of campus (Massachusetts and 45th street). Transfer at Farragut Square (the terminus)...

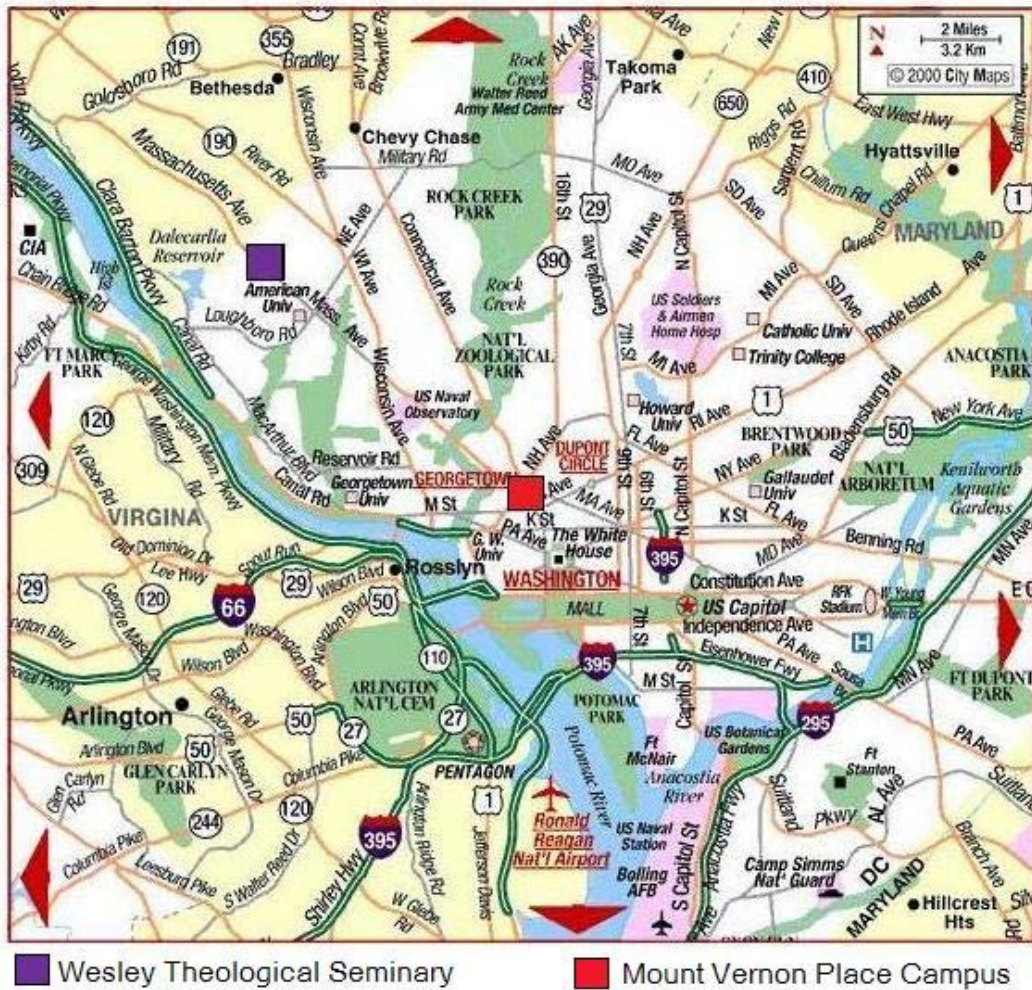

... to the G8 toward Avondale and get off at 11th & K Streets NW. Walk .2 miles to MVS.

... to the DC Circulator toward Union Station and get off at New York Ave & 9th Street NW. Walk .1 miles to Wesley Downtown..

Driving during non-rush hour, driving takes approximately 20 minutes and parking is available at on-street meters or nearby parking garages.

Washington, DC:

Map of the City

Helpful tip #3: Gas is cheaper in Maryland or Virginia, than it is in DC.

Washington, DC:

Getting Around the City

Getting around the city can seem daunting to the uninitiated. Here is a quick guide to help you orient yourself on city streets.

Facts:

- The District is divided into four quadrants: Northwest (NW), Northeast (NE), Southeast (SE), and Southwest (SW).
- The Capitol Building is the “center” of the city. That is, the numbers and letters of streets extend out from that point.
- Lettered streets run east to west, approximately parallel to East and West Capitol Streets.
- Once the lettered alphabet has ended, streets are named according to the alphabet and the number of syllables (Adams, Bryant, Channing, then later Aspen, Butternut, Cedar, etc.)
- Numbered streets run north to south, approximately parallel to North and South Capitol Streets.
- Broad avenues are named for states (e.g. Massachusetts Ave), and run diagonally across the city, connecting major points of interest.
- Where avenues intersect with each other or with streets, there are traffic circles and each circle in the city has a name (e.g. Ward Circle).
- The District is also bounded by diagonal avenues: Western Ave, Eastern Ave, and Southern Ave. Nearest to campus is Western Ave, once you cross Western you are in Maryland.
- Washington, DC is roughly 60 square miles.
- The city was designed by Pierre Charles L'Enfant, based on plans of Paris and other European cities that Thomas Jefferson brought to America.
- The Washington Monument is the city's tallest structure, though there is no law prohibiting buildings based on its height nor the height of the Capitol Building (despite popular belief).

Helpful tip #4: Washington DC cop cars (metro police) always keep their lights on when patrolling (to distinguish them from other squads such as park police or capital police), so don't be scared when seeing their lights.

DC Metro: Metro Map

Helpful tip #5: When using the Metro Rail escalator, stand on the right side and walk on the left side, that way you do not stop the flow of traffic.

DC Metro:

Metro Rail & Metro Bus Fares

Metrorail

- Metro fare is determined by the distance and time you are traveling.
- Metrorail fares range from a minimum of $1.75 to maximum of $5.90, depending on your destination and the time of day (rush hour is more).
- Transfers are free for travel within Metrorail, and you can transfer to Metro bus at a discount when using a SmarTrip card.
- You must purchase a SmarTrip card before boarding the train.
- SmarTrip cards are available at select metro stations, the Metro Center station, Giant grocery stores, select CVS stores, and online at wmata.com.
- Metrorail runs: Sunday-Thursday: 5:30am-12:00am, and Friday-Saturday: 8:00am-2:00am

Metro bus

- The N4, and N6 buses stop on Massachusetts Avenue in front of the Seminary.
- The N4, and N6 buses run from Friendship Heights to Farragut Square down Massachusetts Ave.
- The fare is $1.75 with a SmarTrip card or with cash/coin. You must have the exact change or SmarTrip card.
- Transfers between buses in a two hour period are free when using SmarTrip.

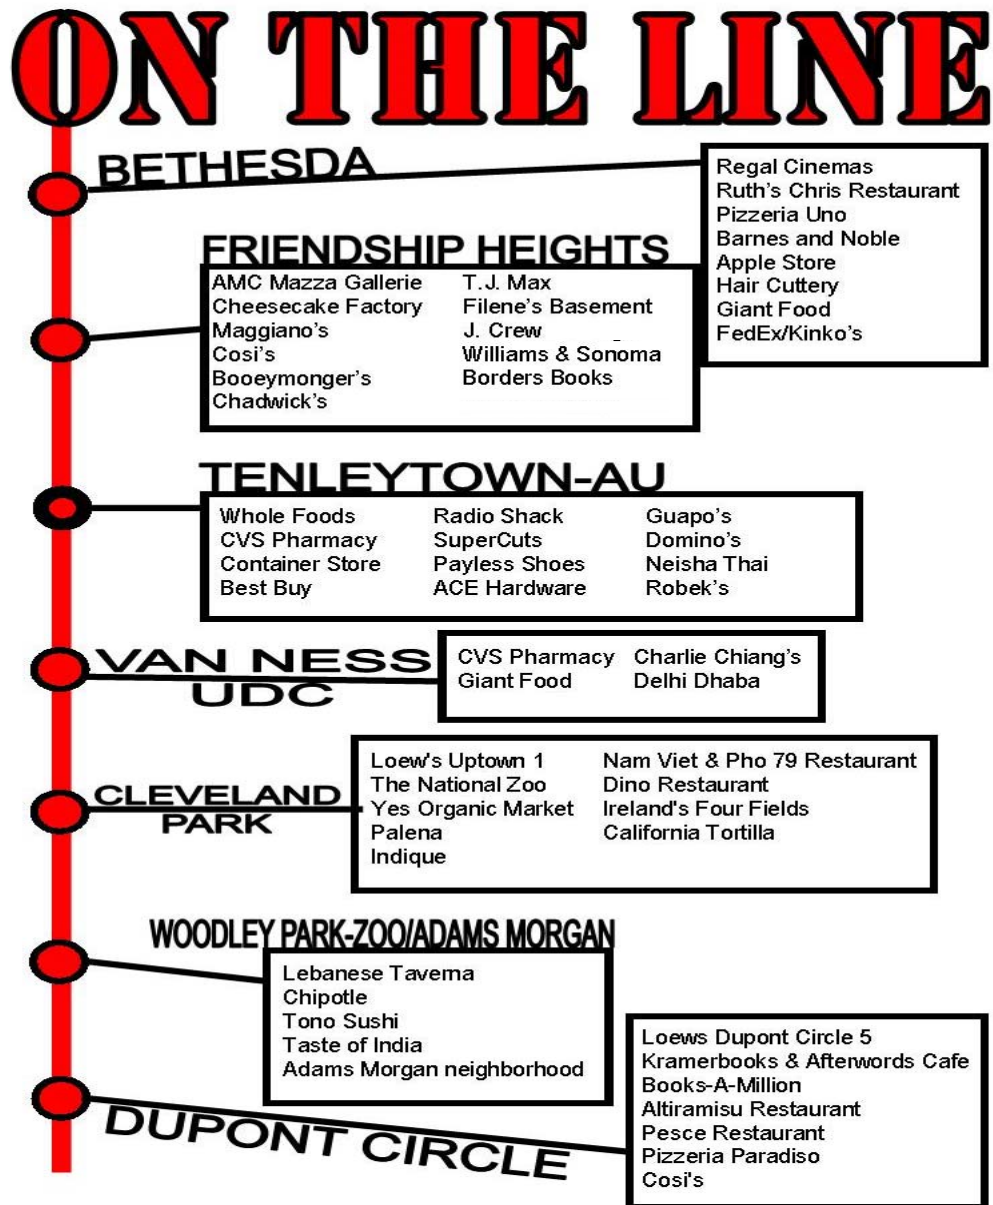

DC Circulator

- This bus system runs five select routes through the city with limited stops: Georgetown-Union Station, Woodley Park-Adams Morgan-McPherson Square Metro, DuPont Circle-Georgetown-Rosslyn, Union Station-Navy Yard, and Potomac Ave Metro-Skyland Via Barracks Row.
- Regular fare is $1.
- Transfers between Circulator buses or Metro buses are free within a two hour period and 50¢ from Metrorail.

If you have a question about the destination or route of a bus, ask the driver, he or she can help you determine your stop.

Helpful tip #6: Bicycles are allowed on Metrorail from 7-10 am and 4-7 pm during weekdays and all day on the weekends and most federal holidays. They are not permitted during events when large crowds are expected. Those traveling with a bicycle should board through the end doors of a rail car.

DC Metro: On the Line

Transportation: Airports

Travel from campus to Dulles via public transportation takes approximated two hours; to BWI is approximately two and a half hours.

Wesley offers a non-insurance health benefit to students, but it is suggested that you seek private coverage if you do not already participate in an insurance plan.

If you have only a minor injury or illness, you may want to stop by a CVS Minute Clinic, which may be more convenient than making an appointment or going to a hospital.

CVS Minute Clinics also offer vaccination services.

Helpful tip #14: Sign up for a free CVS Extra Care card to get discounts on prescriptions and other things in the store. There are also coupons online on their website.

Guest Housing

The Office of Housing at Wesley Seminary currently accepts requests for guest housing for eligible Wesley Seminary guests. Priority consideration for guest housing is given to: educators with active engagements at the seminary, prospective students or faculty (at the behest of the Admissions Office and Dean's Office), Wesley alumni, guests of faculty, administrative staff, and current students, and officials of the United Methodist Church.

Amenities

Each guest apartment is outfitted with a private bath, kitchen or kitchenette, and telephone (local service only). Wireless internet access is available. Each room is equipped with air conditioning and heat. Linens are provided upon request.

Rates

Guest apartment with one guest*	$126
Double occupancy dorm room	$74
Single occupancy dorm room	$88
*Each additional person	$24

Billing Procedure

For guests without a student ID, and whose reservations are not made through a staff or faculty member, we require the first night of your stay to be paid before your arrival. This can be done in one of three ways: by telephone with a credit card, by mail with a check, or in person. A receipt of this payment must be submitted to the Director of Housing in order to pick up keys. If a guest's stay will exceed one night, the remainder of the bill may be paid after check-in in the Business Office (or the entire bill can be paid prior to arrival). Hours of operation for the Business Office are Monday-Friday, 10:00am-12:00pm & 1:00pm-3:00pm.

Requesting Reservation

To make a request for reservations for guest housing, please visit <https://www.wesleyseminary.edu/housing/guest-housing>, and complete the guest housing form. Please note, however, that the Seminary is not a hotel and will not be able to accommodate requests for guest housing without a minimum of two week's notice. Guest housing is limited and fills up quickly.

Wesley Services:

Parking

Parking is available on Wesley's main campus for students, faculty, and staff on a first-come-first-served basis. All spaces are unreserved, but a parking permit is required. One permit per student is included in the Activity Fee paid each semester. Additional permits for resident families with more than one vehicle may be obtained from the Business Office at a cost of $150/semester or $300/ year. Only one vehicle per adult resident is allowed.

Guests:

Guest parking permits can be requested from the business offices. These permits are usually without cost and must be displayed in the car at all times while in the Wesley parking lot with the date of use and specified event.

Parking Regulations

One parking permit is included in student fees paid by all students. These permits should be displayed in the car at all times while in the Wesley parking lot. Cars parked on the campus without a parking permit or visitor permit may be issued a warning. Repeat offenders are subject to towing at the expense of the owner.

Some parking is available on surrounding streets of campus. Should you choose to find street parking be sure to check the posted signs as parking is restricted during certain hours.

The entrance drive from Massachusetts Ave. and the exit drive to University are one way at all times.

Helpful tip #21: Guests can access wireless internet by connecting to either "Public" network.

Dining & Textbooks

Refectory

Hours of Operation (Monday through Thursday, not during breaks):

Lunch: 12:00pm—1:30pm

Dinner: 5:00pm—6:30pm

Prices:

Lunch & Dinner - $9.00

All residents of NRH are required to have a meal plan and that includes lunch and dinner Monday through Thursday.

Coffee and tea are available in the refectory throughout the day on Monday-Thursday. Use an “ugly mug” and take a cup to class!

Textbooks

In an effort to make buying your books simple and intuitive, we have partnered with the AU Campus Store and created an Amazon Associates website. You may also choose to buy your books through Cokesbury.com, any other supplier, or you may also choose to borrow or seek out used copies through other means. The required and recommended texts for all courses are available through WesleyWeb in the course information, as well as being listed on our Amazon site and on shopAmericanU.com

You may also wish to set up an Amazon Student account in order to access Amazon Prime benefits such as free shipping. More information about how to set up an Amazon Student account is also in the textbook purchasing guide.

Helpful tip #22: Vending machines are located in the lobby of Straughn, in the commuter lounge in Kresge, and on the first floor of the Library.

Wesley Services:

Library, Mailroom & IT-Support

Library

Students with a current and valid Wesley Theological Seminary ID are able to borrow material from the library. Books may be borrowed for 28 days at a time. The library also has computers, printers, and photocopiers. A $1 copy card must be purchased and then additional money may be added. Black and white copies and photocopies are $0.10 per page. Books may also be borrowed from the American University library with a valid Wesley ID. Books from the libraries of the Washington Theological Consortium may be ordered for borrowing from the Wesley library. For more information regarding the Wesley library please refer to the website: <https://www.wesleyseminary.edu/library>.

Mail Room

The mail room is open Monday- Friday 8:30-12:00, 1:00-4:30 (maybe some evenings), and Saturday 8:30-12:00. The mail room functions as a complete post office and copy center. You can purchase stamps and envelopes. Packages can be sent through the USPS or DHL. You can also fax documents domestically and abroad. Domestic faxes cost $1 per page. Black and White copies are $0.10 per page. Color copying is also available. A/V material can be reserved in the mail room as well. The mailroom is also where students obtain a mailbox and mailbox key.

IT Support

Should you have trouble with Wesley Web, your Wesley e-mail account, or the wireless internet on campus, you can send a help request email to support@solutionworx.com.

Helpful tip #23: Students can reserve carrels in the library to use for studying. These are especially helpful for commuter students who need a place to study between classes on campus.
