

Wesley Theological Seminary in partnership with Wesley House, Cambridge

announces a new Doctor of Ministry track to be offered in Cambridge, England

Holiness, Effective Ministry, and Engagement With the World

The Doctor of Ministry degree at Wesley Theological Seminary requires 30 credits of academic work plus a research project and project paper.

Additional information is available on the DMin Student webpage:
<https://www.wesleyseminary.edu/doctorofministry/cambridge>

For more information about the Doctor of Ministry Degree, contact:
Associate Dean for Admissions Chip Aldridge
admissions@wesleyseminary.edu | 202.885.8686

January 1-5, 2018	Holiness in Old and New Testament Perspective Calvin Samuel, London School of Theology
January 8-12, 2018	Leadership and Ministry in a Post-Modern World Doug Powe, Wesley Theological Seminary
June 25-29, 2018	Theological Foundations for Holiness in the Church's Faith and Witness Frances Young, Birmingham University
July 2-6, 2018	Worship for a Renewing Church Marcia McFee, Worship Design Studio, Oregon
December 31 - January 4, 2019	Speaking of God: What Language Shall We Borrow? Jane Leach, Wesley House
January 7-11, 2019	The Witness of Faith in the Public Square Michael McCurry, Wesley Theological Seminary
June 24-28, 2019	Holy the Word! Holy the World! Practical Theology, Narrative and Poetics for Engagement in the World Pádraig Ó Tuama, Poet, Theologian, Leader of the Corrymeela Community
July 1-5, 2019	The Arts, Ministry, and Community Engagement Deborah Sokolove, Wesley Theological Seminary

session 1

session 2

session 3

session 4