- Latino Economic Development Corporation (LEDC)
 - LEDC is a community-based economic development organization that drives the economic and social advancement of low to moderate income Latinos and other underserved residents in the Washington metropolitan area by providing the educational and financial resources they need to achieve financial independence. LEDC's vision for inclusive, just, and self-sustaining communities is built upon a foundation of stable housing and thriving small businesses, and this foundation is helping more people become actively engaged in their communities. LEDC works in the areas of small business development and micro-lending, affordable housing preservation, and homeownership and foreclosure counseling. LEDC needs volunteers to help with outreach, communications, event planning, and advocacy.
