

Doctor of Ministry

Track D: Wesley House, Cambridge

The Winds of the Spirit and Ministries for a Changing World

The Doctor of Ministry (DMin) is a postgraduate degree in theology for those in ministry which is widely recognised internationally as a preparation for senior church leadership. The course is offered by Wesley Theological Seminary, Washington and hosted by Wesley House, Cambridge, UK.

The degree consists of four intensive two-week sessions, plus self-study modules which allow students to work from home. The residential sessions will be held at Wesley House in Cambridge during March/April 2019, August 2019, March/April 2020 and August 2020.

- ◆ Study in a global and ecumenical group
- ◆ Enjoy getting to know the historic university city of Cambridge
- ◆ Weekends are free to explore the UK and further abroad (London is 1 hour away from Cambridge by train)

For further information email admissions@wesleyseminary.edu

Session 1:

25-29 March 2019

Spirit, Faith and Community in the Theology of Paul

Carla Works

Associate Professor of New Testament, Wesley Theological Seminary

1-5 April 2019

New Generations and New Patterns in the Church

Emily Peck-McClain

Visiting Professor of Christian Formation and Young Adult Ministry, Wesley Theological Seminary

Session 2:

5-9 August 2019

Calling and Sending: the Acts of the Holy Spirit

Stephen Plant

Dean and Runcie Fellow, Trinity Hall, University of Cambridge

12-16 August 2019

Christian Ethics and Coming Home to Earth

Larry Rasmussen

Reinhold Niebuhr Professor of Social Ethics, Emeritus Union Theological Seminary

Session 3:

23-27 March 2020

Race, Immigration and the Inclusivity of God's Mission

Anthony Reddie

Extraordinary Professor, University of South Africa and Fellow of Wesley House, Cambridge

30 March - 3 April 2020

Art, Ministry and the Needs of the World

Deborah Sokolove

Director, Luce Center for the Arts and Religion, Wesley Theological Seminary

Session 4:

3-7 August 2020

Passionately Christian, Compassionately Interfaith

Sathianathan Clarke

Professor of Theology, Culture and Mission, Wesley Theological Seminary

10-14 August 2020

Pastoral Care in an Age of Social Polarization

Michael Koppel

Professor of Pastoral Theology and Congregational Care, Wesley Theological Seminary