DC Scores Website: http://www.americascorers.org/affiliates/dc Volunteer page: http://volunteerdcscores.weebly.com/	DC Scores goes where kids in need are and creates neighborhood teams that give kids the confidence and skills to succeed on the playing field, in the classroom, and in life. We envision a DC where every child – no matter their family income – experiences the joys of childhood: sports, arts, service, and being part of a team. Where every child – no matter their family circumstances – is empowered to find academic success and grow into an emotionally and physically healthy teen and adult. Where every neighborhood supports and celebrates its children and their accomplishments on and off the playing field.

Project Transformation DC Website: https://projecttransformation.org/washington-dc/ Contact: projecttransformationdc@gmail.com	Project Transformation provides two key services: 1) Leadership development and ministry exploration opportunities for college-age young adults through summer and one-year service internships. 2) Community-oriented after-school and summer day camp programming for children and youth from low-income neighborhoods. The young adults provide this second service, giving them authentic, hands-on experiences leading high-quality programs for children and youth and equally important, learning from the children and youth. PT’s programs focus on enriching the body, mind, and spirit, but we place a unique emphasis on literacy. During the summer, each child is paired with a volunteer to read one-on-one. Programs are strategically housed in churches in the heart of low-income communities. These programs allow the churches to make new connections and form meaningful relationships with families in their immediate neighborhood.
