DM-HE609 Practical Theology, Narrative and Poetic For Engagement in the World Today

This course explores the biblical term 'holiness' in conversation with the protest of contemporary circumstances. Taking Charlotte Delbo's classic from Auschwitz, Ginsberg's post-WWII "Howl" and the poetry both of Mary Oliver and Jane Mead, this course will consider holiness in the light of trauma, addiction and war; sex, love and the body. Underpinning this approach will be a biblical narratology that will problematise the ethics of the group and societal interactions of the gospel narratives; allowing the complexities of the gospel texts to be exposed will allow the complexities of contemporary "holiness" to converse with a narrative adequate to its sophistication. Group discussion, exploration of poetry, exploration of both biblical texts and ethical methodologies will be the features of this course.
