

Electives for the Doctor of Ministry Program

Wesley Theological Seminary

Wesley Theological Seminary reserves the right to make changes and corrections to this schedule.

Below are currently planned electives for the DMin program. We will continue to update this document as courses are added.

Elective FAQs:

Any combination of the following options may be used to fulfill the elective course requirements for a Doctor of Ministry track:

- Students may also register for courses outside their track both on the Wesley campus or on-line to serve as their elective courses. Courses taking place off campus such as in Cambridge, UK, Korea, or the military chaplain track are NOT ELIGIBLE for elective credit. *When in doubt, please contact the DMin office.
- Online D.Min. courses offered in the summer or fall semester.
- Approved courses at member institutions of the Washington Theological Consortium. Please contact the DMIN Director for approval.
- Work at other ATS approved institutions with prior approval from Wesley's Doctor of Ministry Office. Transfer work must be done during the time the student is enrolled in the DMin at Wesley, must be on an accredited, doctoral level and may not be applied toward the awarding of another degree. Up to 6 hours of elective courses may be taken outside Wesley.

Work completed prior to entry into the Doctor of Ministry program at Wesley will not be applied towards the Doctor of Ministry degree.

2020

August 2-7, 2020 Birmingham, AL

DM-965 Pilgrimage to the Alabama Civil Rights Movement Dr. Tony Hunt

This course requires attendance in Birmingham, AL. Students will need to plan for additional costs for course expenses to include a site admission, lodging and meals. These will be charged to your student account. Students are responsible for getting themselves to the course location.

September 23-25, 2020 Leawood, KS

Leadership Institute at Church of the Resurrection Dr. Lovett Weems

This course required on-line work as well as attendance to the Institute in Leawood, KS. Students are responsible for their own travel and lodging as a part of attending the conference. Keynote speakers include The Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church, Bishop Michael Curry and Ron Heifetz, from the Harvard Kennedy School. Additional information can be found on line here: <https://li.cor.org/>