Phone: 607-591-5780

Course Goals

This course is designed to provide an opportunity for local pastors to strengthen their ability to engage in theological reflection, and to help them think theological about the wide range of endeavors part of pastoral ministry. Further, students will reflect how theology informs and shapes life both inside and outside the community of faith.

Course Objectives

The following objectives are intended to help students attain these goals:

- To experience a sustained discussion of basic theological perspectives
- To learn how to think theologically about the practices of day-to-day ministry
- To practice the art of theological reflection by being in conversation with colleagues
- To gain further understanding of the relationship of theological reflection and a life of faith.

It is expected that at the end of the course students will have developed a deeper understanding of theological reflection and the impact on the practice of ministry. Students will have refined their skill in theological reflection to enable them to clarify the theology which governs their ministry endeavors.

Required Texts:

Will Willimon, Pastor: The Theology and Practice of Ordained Ministry (Revised Edition)

Kathleen Cahalan, Introducing the Practice of Ministry

Charles Wood and Ellen Blue, Attentive to God: Thinking Theologically in Ministry

Recommended Texts:

Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Life Together: The Classic Exploration of Christian Community

Written Assignments:

Written Assignment 1 (10% of grade)

After reading Willimon's Pastor: The Theology and Practice of Ordained Ministry give deeper attention to chapters 2, 12, 14 and one of your choice. For each of the four chapters write a 1-2 page reflection sharing the following:

1. How did the text resonate with your understanding?
2. Where did the text cause dissonance with your understanding?
3. How does the text impact the way you practice ministry in your current setting?

Post to Blackboard no later than midnight January 9, 2021.

Written Assignment 2 (10% of grade)

After reading Cahalan's Introducing The Practice of Ministry, give deeper attention to chapters 1, 5, 7, and one of your choice. For each of the four chapters write a 1-2 page reflection sharing the following:

1. How did the text resonate with your understanding?
2. Where did the text cause dissonance with your understanding?
3. How does the text impact the way you practice ministry in your current setting?

Post to Blackboard no later than midnight January 16, 2021.

Written Assignment 3 (15% of Grade)

Part 1:

After reading Wood and Blue's Attentive to God: Thinking Theologically in Ministry, write a 3-5 page reflection based on Part 1 of the book. Be sure to articulate how you are growing your capacity to engage in theological reflection.

Part 2:

Select one of the case studies from Part two of Wood and Blue. Write a one page theological reflection in response to the case study.

Post both parts in one document to Blackboard no later than midnight January 30, 2021.

Written Assignment 4 (20% of Grade)

Part 1:

Write a case study for theological reflection. The case should be a real situation in ministry—preferably one in which you, yourself, are currently or recently engaged. The actual identities of the individuals involved in the case, however, should be disguised. The case should present a clear point of theological reflection whereas Christian doctrine and practice inform a deeper conversation of theology and the practice of ministry. The case study should be no more than 4 pages.

Part 2:

Write a 4-6 page theological reflection exploring the theological aspects of the case study from part 1. Be sure to show evidence of engagement with the readings for the course, as well as the lectures, and other interactions such as Zoom theological reflections and online forums.

Post both parts in one document to Blackboard no later than midnight February 27, 2021.

All papers will be evaluated by the standards of the assignment, clarity of writing, accuracy, consistency, the ability to make a coherent argument, and fidelity to proper academic standards, including accurate quotation and citation of sources. Papers must include complete references. Proper citation of all sources is expected. Please submit all papers double spaced in Times New Roman, 12 point font, with 1 inch margins. Papers more than 1 page shorter or longer than the page requirements will be marked down accordingly.

Papers are due at the time and date posted with each assignment. If there is a ministry situation causing a challenge to the completion of the assignment contact Dr. Bouwens right away to discuss the best way to move forward. Late papers will be reduced by 10% grade every 5 days late. Unless worked out with Dr. Bouwens, no papers will be accepted after March 13, 2021.

Online Forums

An important part of an online learning community is discussion through forums. There will be regular questions posted to Blackboard for discussion. Students are expected to engage in dialogue with each other through the forums. Additionally, there may be videos posted for viewing and reflection. Participation with the online forums makes up 10% of your grade.

Zoom Theological Reflection (30% of Grade)

A class about theological reflection cannot be theory alone. Daily we face situations that invite us to theological reflection. Often, we need practice to develop the pattern and brain muscles of theological reflection. To that end, each week there will be a Zoom meeting to engage in the practice of theological reflection. During this time it is expected students will offer situations for theological reflection from the past week of ministry. The sessions will be from 7pm-8pm on the following days; January 20, January 27, February 3, February 10, February 18, February 25. Students are expected to be present for 3 of the sessions. It is not required to be at all 6 sessions, though students are welcome at as many as they would like to attend.
