Greeting Asa Lee, Associate Dean for Campus Life President-Elect, Pittsburgh Theological Seminary

Leader: Astonishing Maker of all that is, Swirling Breath of life and love, Patient Teacher of faithful service, you are our dwelling place, the true home of our hearts.

People: Before you formed the earth and stars, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.

Leader: You call us to live in your holy presence, made known to us through Jesus our Savior.

He has shown us your love, justice, and mercy, and calls us to live so that your Church will be a harbor of safety and joy.

All: Fill us with your steadfast love, so that we may rejoice in you.

We give thanks for the very gift of life as we share in the joy of this day. Amen.

Opening Prayer Kyunglim Shin Lee Vice President, International Relations

Welcome and Introduction

Announcements of Awards To Students

Presentation: Society of John Wesley Award of Merit

Prayer for Illumination

Tom Berlin Chair, Board of Governors

Leader: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Leader: Let us pray.

Holy God, made known to us in the writings of Israel, the teachings of Jesus, and the witness of the Church;

By the power of the Holy Spirit interpret to us the scriptures as they are read and expounded.

We pray for the grace to live out their truth, for your glory and for the sake of the world you have redeemed through Christ our Savior.

All: Amen.

THE MARTHA ASHBY CARR PROFESSOR OF CHRISTIAN ETHICS

LITANY OF THANKSGIVING AND INTERCESSION

Paul Cho

Associate Professor of Hebrew Bible

Leader:

Loving God,
We gather in your presence and bring our hearts before you as we pray:

God our Rock and Stronghold,
we give you thanks that you have brought us through the deep waters of seminary formation and across the high mountains of academic study to reach this day of joy and celebration.
As we go out from this place,
give us assurance of your never ending love,
and hold us fast to the sure ground of your unfailing strength.

Let us pray to the Lord,

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader:

God our Great Physician,
we pray not only for ourselves but for the world:
a world suffering wounds of pandemic and racism,
a world suffering the sickness caused by sin and hatred.
Pour your Spirit of healing out on us and on our world:
give us hands to help and hearts to heal,
and go ahead of us,
preparing the fields and vineyards into which we are sent.

Let us pray to the Lord:

People: Lord hear our prayer.

Leader:

God our Good Shepherd,
we give thanks for your shepherds who have led us to today,
and for all those to whom you send us as shepherds.
We give thanks for teachers and students,
for those who serve us and those whom we serve,
for those whom we follow and those whom we lead.
Fill us with your Holy Spirit of discernment and wisdom that we may learn to lead by following you.

Let us pray to the Lord:

People: We give our thanks for all your many gifts, and for your presence that abides always with us. It is right to give our thanks and praise to you: Holy One, Maker of all, who has filled us with your Spirit, and given us eternal life in Christ. Amen.

CHARGE TO THE CLASS

EVERETT B. McAllister 2021 M.Div.

Leader: Called by God and the church, we now go forth to be God's people in the world. Our calls come in many forms, yet we have all said: "Here I am; send me." Having been trained, nurtured, and challenged in seminary, we now seek to share God's love and justice through service in the world.

Class: Our hope rests on divine promises. We look to God for a spirit of willingness, courage to witness, and strength to lead. We give thanks for the love and support of our families and communities of faith. We believe that God shows us where love, hope, and faith are needed, and helps us to act with wisdom and courage.

BLESSING
