

Doctor of Ministry

Track F: Wesley House, Cambridge

Justice, Compassion & Witness: Ministry in a Turbulent World

The Doctor of Ministry (DMin) is a postgraduate degree in theology for those in ministry which is widely recognised internationally as a preparation for senior church leadership. The course is offered by Wesley Theological Seminary, Washington and hosted by Wesley House, Cambridge, UK.

The degree consists of four intensive two-week sessions, plus self-study modules which allow students to work from home. The residential sessions will be held at Wesley House in Cambridge during March 2023, July/August 2023, April 2024 and July/August 2024.

- ◆ Study in a global and ecumenical group
- ◆ Enjoy getting to know the historic university city of Cambridge
- ◆ Weekends are free to explore the UK and further abroad (London is 1 hour away from Cambridge by train)

For further information email admissions@wesleyseminary.edu

Session 1:

March 20-24, 2023

Reclaiming the Hebrew Bible's Prophetic Tradition in Turbulent Times

Cheryl Anderson, Professor of Old Testament, Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary

March 27-31, 2023

Christian Ethics and Climate Crisis

Mark Y. A. Davies, Wimberly Professor of Social and Ecological Ethics; Director, World House Institute for Social and Ecological Ethics, Oklahoma City University

Session 2:

July 31-Aug 4, 2023

Jesus in a Turbulent World: The Gospel of John for the Twenty-First Century

David Ford, Emeritus Regius Professor of Divinity, University of Cambridge; Fellow, Selwyn College

August 7-11, 2023

Pastoral Care in an Age of Polarization

Michael Koppel, Howard Chandler Robbins Professor of Pastoral Theology and Congregational Care, Associate Dean for Academic Affairs

Session 3:

April 8-12, 2024

Theology in the Public Square

Michael McCurry, Distinguished Professor/ Director Emeritus, Center for Public Theology, Wesley Theological Seminary

Rick Elgendy, Assistant Professor of Christian Ethics and Public Theology, Wesley Theological Seminary

April 15-19 2024

Theology and Ministry in a Technological World

Richard A. Davis, Director of the Centre for Faith in Public Life and Director of Contextual Theology, Wesley House Cambridge

Session 4:

July 29-August 2, 2024

Gospel, Cultures, and Church in Contemporary Contexts: Mission in a Changing World

Paul Weston, Senior Lecturer in Mission Studies and Director of the Newbigin Centre, Ridley Hall, Cambridge; Affiliated Lecturer, Cambridge University Faculty of Divinity

August 5-9, 2024

Ministry on the Margins: Poverty, Migration/ Immigration, and Urban Issues

C. Anthony Hunt, Professor of Systematic, Moral and Practical Theology and Dunning Distinguished Lecturer, St. Mary's Seminary and University, Baltimore, MD