

Wesley Theological Seminary Doctor of Ministry: Global Track

Track Objectives

Doctor of Ministry Global track seeks to further equip pastors, professors, and missionaries in Asia, Europe, Africa, and the United States with contemporary best practices in pastoral leadership and trends in the theological disciplines. Special attention is given to the impact of global awareness on the practices and disciplines that enhance ministry and mission. Students in this program will create ministry projects that reflect cutting edge responses to the spiritual and systemic challenges in their settings.

Admission Criteria

Admission to any Wesley degree program requires a bachelor's degree or equivalent from a regionally accredited college. In addition, applicants for the Doctor of Ministry program must hold a Master of Divinity or equivalent from a seminary accredited by the Association of Theological Schools or in partnership with Wesley Theological Seminary and must have completed three years of ministry experience prior to entering Wesley's Doctor of Ministry program.

Requirements

Applicants are required to take English test if score does not meet the standard (TOEFL IBT80, PBT550, and CBT 213). Before the January and June intensive term, students who live in Korea will meet regularly on Mondays for Pre-study group. Each of the two weeks of the intensive term requires 30 contact hours with the professor. After the intensive term, students have six weeks to complete course assignments. The two weeks on campus for the intensive term are devoted entirely to class interaction based on the preparatory work.

Track Schedule

Each Intensive term is for two weeks in January and June/July.

The first term starts at Wesley Theological Seminary (Washington, DC).
