Written Assignments

Reflection Paper One

Due Monday, June 5

Read the Birch et al. and Lovin texts in their entirety and prepare a paper responding to the five questions below, drawing particularly from your understanding of the readings and your own experience. It is expected that each answer be 500-600 words long, about two pages each, for a total of 10 pages. Please number your answers and format papers with one-inch margins, double-spaced, using 12-point type with a font such as Times New Roman. Papers are submitted through Blackboard online learning platform under the Assignments tab.

1. Summarize Birch et al.'s understanding of the authority of the Bible for Christian ethical formation and discernment.
2. What is the place of "social sin" in moral formation, according to Birch et al.?
3. Define "Christian stance" and compare and contrast two of its variations, as presented by Lovin.
4. Summarize one of the primary ways of moral reasoning discussed by Lovin – deontology, teleology or virtue ethics – including the thought of at least one of its prominent theorists, and, from your experience, provide one example of how the theory has influenced Christian practice.
5. Choose a moral dilemma that has presented in your ministry past or present (you are invited to change names as appropriate). What specific insights from these texts are helpful in discerning how you as a Christian leader might respond? What challenges do the texts illuminate?

Reflection Paper Two

Written Assignment

Research Paper

Topic Statement Due: Wednesday, June 14 @ 5 p.m.

Paper Due: Wednesday, July 12 @ 5 p.m.

Class Presentations to be scheduled July 13 & 14

The Research Paper is an opportunity for you to engage in a depth examination of a practical moral issue addressed within the United Methodist Social Principles and to provide a constructive response from a Christian perspective. It is recommended that you choose a topic that has a level of moral ambiguity in your initial assessment, however you are free to choose a topic that reflects your practical interests in ministry, or one that relates to a particular moral or theological problem of interest to you. The paper will be evaluated primarily on the clarity of the writing and the quality of the thinking evident in your analysis and arguments. The paper should also give evidence of reading in sources (beyond Wikipedia) related to your topic, in addition to the required reading for the course. The paper should be no less than eight and no more than 10 pages in length (approximately 2750 words).

Students will provide the instructor a one-paragraph summary of the topic. The summary should include a one-sentence statement of the question to be addressed; an indication of the social category as defined by the Social Principles to which the question pertains (The Natural World, The Nurturing Community ...), and at least one source that the student will utilize beyond the course materials. After receiving approval from the instructor you may enter your submission to Discussion Board Four.

Based on the topics selected, a schedule of class presentations will be developed for the final day(s) of class.

You will want, in your paper, to provide a clear statement of the question you are working to answer, along with an analysis of the question, identifying inherently the key elements calling for ethical investigation, analyzing these with the help of your course materials and research. Identify the sources for ethics on which you rely and how these sources operate, and then draw on these sources for your own ethical analysis. Analyze how the various approaches to ethics you have read about have any bearing on the issue. In addition, ensure that you consider both your own viewpoint and possible alternative or contrary viewpoints from an ethical and theological perspective. Ensure that you give reasons for the position at which you arrive; do not simply state your position and assume the reasons behind it are obvious. Finally, make sure that you properly cite references, using footnotes or endnotes. A bibliography of all sources consulted, regardless of whether you quote from them or not, should also be included.

Examples of Research Topics:

The Natural World

- How should Christians respond to a proposal to ban the practice of fracking?
- Who should receive preferential treatment, if any, when the flourishing of an endangered species conflicts with business or agricultural interests?

The Nurturing Community

- Should a divorce be relevant to the ordination or appointment of a United Methodist pastor?
- Is abortion ever morally justified? If so, under what circumstances, and if not, why not?

The Social Community

- What is the responsibility of the church in addressing white supremacy in American culture?
- Should the government mandate universal access to health care?

The Economic Community

- Should a state government or sovereign tribal nation sanction or sponsor gambling?
- Should the state mandate a minimum wage that employers must pay and, if so, how should the rate be set?

The Political Community

- Under what circumstances, if any, is capital punishment morally justifiable?
- Should public and organized prayer be allowed in public schools and under what circumstances?

The World Community

- When, if ever, is it morally justifiable for a nation to go to war?
- What responsibility does the United States have for addressing the lack of Covid-19 vaccines in third-world nations?

Grading

Grades will be calculated as follows:

Reflection Paper One	20 %
Class Participation:	10 %
Discussion Boards	20 %
Reflection Paper Two	20 %
Research Paper	25 %
Class Presentation	5 %

Grade Scale:

A	93-100

Grades will be reduced a step (e.g. from B to a B-) for assignments handed in late, but within 24 hours after the assignment was due. Grades will be reduced a full letter grade for any assignments 24 hours past due. Assignments over 48 hours past due will be lowered two letter grades. Students submitting assignments more than 72 hours past due should set a time to conference with the instructor.

The final grade will be reduced a full letter grade for an unexcused absence from a zoom session. Students will not receive credit for the course with two or more unexcused absences from a Zoom session.

Inclusive Language

In both oral and written contributions to the course, students are expected to be conscious of the power of language in theology. Inclusive language respects both gender and racial diversity, and students should demonstrate awareness that language about persons and God expresses values and impacts theological ideas in the details of race and gender connotations. Both gender and race are socially-constructed categories, and changing language is part of bringing justice to theological discourse.

Academic Policies

Attendance

Students are expected to attend all classes in their entirety. Faculty members have the authority to set attendance policies for particular courses and those policies will be included in the course syllabus. Deviation from the attendance policy may result in reduction of grade or loss of credit for the course.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is regarded as a serious offense and will result in substantial penalties, including the possibility of academic dismissal. The faculty regards the following as form of plagiarism or dishonesty:

- Copying from another student's paper.
- Giving or receiving unauthorized assistance to or from another student during an examination.
- Using unauthorized material during an examination.
- Borrowing or presenting as one's own (i.e. without proper attribution) the composition or ideas of another.

Please refer to your Wesley Student Handbook (on-line) for more information about Wesley's academic policies or contact the Course of Study office 202-885-8688.
