

National Capital Experiences for Seminarians (NCES)

Lead at the Intersection of Faith and Public Life

NCES courses probe the biblical and theological foundations of Christian political engagement, the role of faith and communities of faith in public life and discourse, and the practical shape of faithfulness in the public sphere.

MM-350 NCES Immersion Course to the 2024 Democratic Primary in South Carolina

(3 credits)

Pre-trip virtual Session: January 19th

Immersion Dates: January 30th - Feb. 5th

Dr. Lorena Parrish

Cost: $1,200.00 - hotel, travel within SC, breakfast, site tours.

Hotel based on double occupancy

Tuition credits cost not included.

This NCES course will allow students to explore the beginning of the 2024 presidential primary season. We will journey around South Carolina learning about its political and historical place in history and how it relates to people of faith in our current culture.

NCES Faculty

Dr. Lorena Parrish

Associate Professor of Urban Ministries

Director, Community Engagement Institute & Center for Public Theology

Dr. Parrish earned her Ph.D., M. Phil. and M.Div. at Union Theological Seminary and an M.S.S.W. from Columbia University. An ordained Baptist minister, Dr. Parrish's academic specializations include Urban Ministry; Womanist Theology; Theology, Ethics and Popular Culture; Theology and the Black Church; and Practical Theology.

To learn more, contact the Office of Admissions:
admissions@wesleyseminary.edu or 202-885-8659