This course focuses on the content and message of the Gospels and the theological perspectives of gospel writers. This will include an overview of the social, historical and cultural matrix of the early followers of Jesus, the literary styles and genres used in the texts, and the gospels’ multi-faceted portraits of Jesus, discipleship, and community. The practice of exegesis will be emphasized.

Goals:
1. Understand the origin, message, and purpose of each Gospel
2. Exegete this form of literature
3. Apply exegesis to preaching, other pastoral responsibilities, and issues of the present day.

Required Texts:
✦ Two articles/chapters (to be posted on Blackboard).
✦ A good study Bible with introduction and explanatory notes. Suitable study Bibles include:
✦ If you have a Bible other than one listed above, please contact me to discuss its suitability for this course.

Online Access:
This course will be entirely online. Between June 1 and June 30, students must access Blackboard regularly in order to complete Modules A-D, including readings, videos, and discussion board components. July 8-12, students must participate in Zoom sessions between 1:00-3:00 p.m. daily. If you have any questions about the syllabus or assignments, please email me.
Assignments and Assessment:

Fifteen percent of your overall grade will be based on presence and participation at the Zoom sessions July 8-12, 2024 (1:00-3:00 p.m. daily).

Forty-five percent of your overall grade will be based on posts/replies for the Discussion Boards. Students must post/reply on each of the prompted discussion boards for Modules A-D. (Each discussion board bears a separate weight within this category, even if there are multiple boards within a single module.). The schedule of discussion boards is posted below. More detailed guidelines will be on Blackboard.

Five percent of your overall grade will be based on post on the Start-Your-Own discussion board. No reply is due on this board.

Ten percent of your overall grade will be based on your Luke assignment due July 8, 2024. This paper will be submitted on Blackboard. Rubric and and guidelines will be available on Blackboard.

Twenty-five percent of your overall grade will be based on your Final Paper due July 12, 2024. This eight-page paper will (1) discuss a text from John’s gospel and (2) synthesize the learning of the class with reference to the gospels’ accounts of the crucifixion. This paper will be submitted on Blackboard. Rubric and and guidelines will be available on Blackboard.

Assignments in this class require you to engage with the readings assigned. You may choose but are not required to consult other resources (commentaries, dictionaries) such as those you may be familiar with from prior COS courses. On discussion boards and in the final paper, you must properly cite your sources. For readings which have been assigned for this class, include author/page number(s) (i.e. “Powell, 141”). For Bible citations, provide book/chapter:verse (i.e. “Mark 1:1”). For purposes of this class, introductions, footnotes or other scholarly information from your study Bible may be cited simply giving the study Bible abbreviation and the note verse number (i.e. “NISB Mark Introduction,” “NISB Mark 1:1-13 note,” or “NISB Mark 1:1 note”; this example is given to make plain the importance of giving the note number; these are two different notes in the NISB). For any additional resources you choose to use, you must include author/title/publisher/publication date/page number(s).

Please refer to your Wesley COS Student Handbook (on-line) for more information about Wesley’s academic policies or contact the Course of Study office (202-885-8688).

(Reply on C.2 to a classmate who compared a different set of texts.)

  - Choose ONE of the following passages from John:
    - John 3:1-21 (Jesus and Nicodemus),

  - In 250 words describe the form and context of the passage you chose. (What kind of text is this (miracle, parable, etc.)? In what part of John’s gospel does this passage occur? What comes right before and after this particular passage? How does this framing affect the interpretation of the passage? What do we need to know about first century context in order to understand the passage?)

  - In 250 words explain what theme(s) important to John is present in this passage (What is John telling us about God, Jesus, the Spirit and/or discipleship in this passage?)
‘Putting It Together’ (5 pages)

Each gospel recounts Jesus’ crucifixion differently. Analyze the similarities and differences between

- Matthew 27:32-54,
- Mark 15:21-39,
- Luke 23-26-47, and

What is distinctive about each version? How do those distinctions relate to the overall perspective or theme of the larger narrative as related to discipleship, Christology, or other particular emphasis of the particular gospel (Matthew, Mark, Luke or John). For each passage, explain what you would emphasize if you preached on that passage on Good Friday.

This question requires you to analyze (not list) the similarities and differences. Analysis requires both identification and discussion of the comparison with particular focus on the ways each version relates to the perspective and message of the gospel in which it is located.

Consult the rubric on Bb for guidance on citation and formatting as well as criteria for grading.
