

Chaplaincy Team

CPE Residency 2025-2026

UVA Health offers CPE residents a rich learning environment with 600 inpatient beds, a Level I trauma center, an NCI-designated Comprehensive Cancer Center, a children's hospital, eight intensive care units (including a level 4 neonatal ICU), and nationally ranked high-performing specialties. Forbes ranks UVA one of the American's Best Places to Work in 2023; Magnet® recognizes University Medical Center for delivering superior and innovative nursing care.

Qualification: One unit of CPE; Master's Degree in Religious Studies, Theology, Divinity, or its equivalent.

Application: Visit our website:

uvahealth.com/services/cpe

or email: cpe@uvahealth.org

Non-refundable processing fee: $50

Priority Consideration: January 31, 2025

Dates: Sept. 1, 2025 – Aug. 31, 2026

Three CPE units; Tuition waived.

Comprehensive GME House Staff benefits:

$56,290 stipend, medical and dental plan, paid time off. Benefits details: med.virginia.edu/gme/resources/community/stipendsbenefits/

Wellness: On-site employee gym, Faculty and Employee Assistance (FEAP), and Hoos Well, UVA's award-winning wellness program

A supportive team: Board-certified chaplains, CPE educators, and interdisciplinary colleagues.

Curriculum: identity formation, skill development, theory integration, and multiculturalism. Access to University library and academic support.

Intensive Week: Chaplaincy research methodology and board certification preparation.

Interprofessional learning: "Summer Fusion Seminars" on ethics with the School of Medicine and day-long retreats with UVA Contemplative Sciences Center.